

To see picture version of this itinerary Click Here

Suggested North Ionian itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Preveza

After your landing at Aktio Preveza Airport, a convenient 15-minute taxi ride takes you to the luxurious Marina of Preveza. We will await you with a welcome drink and surprise package. Also, let us assist you with the check-in process and securely store your luggage. Take advantage of the Marina facilities to freshen up with a shower and unwind after your travels. If you're in the mood to explore, wander through the charming, narrow streets of lively Preveza, known for its typical Greek architecture. Visit the historic Preveza Castle, offering a glimpse into the region's rich past.

Day 2: Sailing to Anti Paxos

Your skipper charts the course for the Preveza channel, enjoy a delicious breakfast with your loved ones in the saloon. We then set sail for Antipaxos, renowned for its stunning beauty, said to be created by Neptune with a tap of his trident. Experience the thrill of sailing on the Mediterranean for approximately 4.5 hours, with the option to take the rudder under the captain's guidance. Upon arrival at the bays of Voutoumi and Vrika, dive into the crystal-clear waters and sit on the sandy beaches. This is the perfect for a BBQ-lunch on board. Soak in the idyllic views of this Paradise Island. Later, head to Gaios, the charming capital of Paxos, for an evening filled with shopping, dining at Greek tavernas, and sipping traditional Greek Frapés at the terrace.

Day 3: Paxos and Sivota

Start your day with your captain guiding you to beautiful bays for snorkelling, swimming, or fishing. Explore swimming spots like Orkos Beach and Kipiadi or visit the quaint town of Lakka, nestled in a beautiful bay. Choose between lunch at a beach taverna or exploring Lakka further. Later, we make the crossing to Sivota on the mainland. We anchor at this picturesque harbour village with pretty beaches and a variety of bars and restaurants for a relaxing evening.

Day 4: Corfu Town

Your skipper leaves early for Corfu Town to make sure you can enjoy this beautiful city during brunchtime. You might think that the skipper made a mistake and you ended up in Italy, but that is not the case, because the beauty of Italian Architecture comes from the time that the Venetians build Corfu. It really stands out to the rest of Greece. Spend the evening exploring the city's vibrant atmosphere. Your yacht and skipper await you, anchored in the bay in front of the city centre. Don't miss landmarks like; the Corfu Museum of Asian Art, Agios Iasonas Kai Sosipatros, and Saint George Church.

www.sailandandsavour.com

(+30) 6931468148

Day 5: Paradise beaches Drepano and Makrigiali and Bella Vraka Beach

Today your skipper will sail the yacht to the mainland to visit the pristine beaches and nature reserve of Drepano and Makrigiali, where you can enjoy the bright, transparent waters away from the crowds. Relax at a beach bar with magnificent views before heading for Bella Vraka Beach, known for its picturesque scenery. This unique beach has the sea coming in from two sides, providing a narrow strip of sand and shallow waters for bathing and enjoying the scenery. We anchor in the area to spend the night.

Day 8) Southwards to Parga

After a beautiful sunrise and a refreshing morning swim, we continued our journey to Parga. We anchor in the expansive bay, known for its stunning wide beaches near the town. Here, you can partake in a variety of watersports or hop on a water taxi to explore the charming streets and vibrant atmosphere of Parga. This picturesque seaside town is famous for its colorful houses that cascade down the hillside, creating a postcard-perfect view. Visitors can explore its rich history by visiting the Venetian Castle overlooking the town or wandering through its quaint, bustling alleys. Parga is also renowned for its warm hospitality and excellent local cuisine, making it a must-visit destination.

Day 7: Return to Preveza

Today, we make our way back to Preveza and will make some nice swimming stops on the way. After a week filled with unforgettable moments, unwind and immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere of this charming town as you spend the night on board.

Day 8: Beautiful goodbyes

We are sorry to see you go but are confident we will meet again on your next trip to Greece, because there is so much to explore!

*Itineraries are suggested. Your preferences and the weather influences the actual route.

To see picture version of this itinerary Click Here

